Y. M. C. A. Annual Meeting a Rousing Success

TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY THROUGH THE GYMNASIUM TO HEAR MR. BRADEN.

Not within the last year has the Y. M. C. A. capacity for seating a crowd been so overtaxed as it was last Monday evening, when Mr. George W. Braden told an enthusiastic town gathering of his experiences overseas in France and Italy with the Y. M. C. A. Space does not permit full justice to be done to his address. Those who were unable to attend had best ask their neighbor who did attend to tell some of the details of Mr. Braden's exciting and interesting experiences.

Mr. Stites presided and added to the interest of the occasion by his introductions and stories.

Miss Cross as the leader of the singing helped greatly to make the gathering enthusiastic in spite of the poor location of the piano. All of these mentioned deserve a vote of thanks from those in attendance for their willingness to help.

Annual Meeting of Members Follows
This Public Meeting.

With sixteen Directors and an equal number of members present, the annual meeting proceeded with its regular order of business. The chief point of discussion was the possibility of not only raising a subscription budget of $5,000 for 1919, but the clearing of the entire debt of the Association and a possible extension of our building conveniences.

Mr. T. Noel Butler as chairman, with Rev. Frank M. Gray, Rev. Avery S. Demmy, Mr. H. C. Gara and Mr. Clarence L. Metzgar were appointed a committee to consider the various suggestions offered and report at a subsequent meeting of the membership.

The election of Directors to fill the place of those whose terms had expired resulted in the election of the following for a term of three years: William N. Mills, Clarence L. Smith, T. Noel Butler, William J. Bailey, F. W. Stites, George W. Waidner and Thomas C. Trotter.

LAST CALL FOR SUPPER

Next Thursday Is the Night for One of Mrs. Odell's Famous Oyster Suppers—Ham Will Be Ready for Those Who Do Not

Like Oysters:

Thursday, December 12th, starting at 6 P. M., Mrs. Odell will serve one of her famous oyster suppers at the Y. M. C. A., under the auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary. If it so happens that you do not like oysters there will be a substitute in the form of delicious ham to appease your appetite.

Who Could Get Such a Supper at Home for Only Fifty Cents?

One of the main features of this supper will be the low cost of only fifty cents per plate. All housekeepers know that their own suppers at home are more expensive than that in these times of H. C. of L. Come and knock the H. out of the H. C. of L. Cake, Candy and Miscellaneous Tables an Added Attraction.

All ye who like home-made cake and candy take notice! Not only will you be given the opportunity to partake of this delicious supper, but you will have the added opportunity of buying some home-made cake and candy, a real treat. A miscellaneous table is also announced. The contents of that table are a mystery to the writer, but you are urged to come if for no other reason than to get the pick of the unknown articles that will be for sale on that table.

Get your tickets at the Y. M. C. A. office or from a member of the Woman's Auxiliary before Thursday if possible, but the important thing is to come on Thursday evening. Tickets will be on sale at the door for those unable to secure them previous to the supper.

TAXPAYERS LOSE FIGHT ON WATER COMPANY.

Public Service Commission Dismisses Complaints of Increased Charges.

EFFECTS EIGHTEEN BOROUGHES

The Public Service Commission in session at Harrisburg in a brief order dismissed the complaints of the eighteen boroughs and townships in the metropolitan district outside Philadelphia, filed against the Springfield Consolidated Water Company because of its increased rates for fire protection.

The decision ends four years of controversy over the rates and service of the company. Consumers began litigation in the Courts and later the case was carried to the Public Service Commission, the complaints then being based on domestic service rates. A valuation of the property was asked for and the most complete survey of a water company known in the country followed.

The result was a decision by the Commission some months ago by which the company was allowed to obtain a 7 per cent. profit on its investment. This meant a reduction of 33 1/4 per cent. in domestic rates.

The Commission, however, allotted a specified sum as an equitable return to the company for fire protection and fixed the water rates for all municipalities at $7 for each fire hydrant and $335 a mile for all mains connecting these plugs.

The fire hydrant rate was about what the municipalities had been paying, but the pipe mileage rate ran the annual bills of the municipalities up to 800 and as high as 1600 per cent. above former bills.

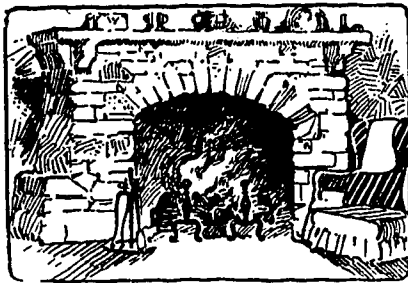

The townships of Lower Merion, Abington, Cheltenham and Springfield, Montgomery County; Haverford, Upper Darby, Radnor and Springfield, Delaware County; Lansdowne, Sharon Hill, Swarthmore, Conshohocken, Rutledge, Collingdale, Norwood, Prospect Park, Ridley Park and Morton filed complaints against the new fire service rates and asked the Commission to reopen the case for a readjustment of the rates. The Commission last week heard final argument in these cases.

WAR STAMP SALES.

At Narberth Post Office there is a sufficient amount of stamps yet to be sold to make it imperative upon the part of our citizens to come forward and invest in these stamps very liberally during the remaining weeks of the present year. A sheet of 20 War Stamps cost $84.40, for which the purchaser will receive $100 in 1923. Help push Narberth over.

FOUND—A card containing some Thrift Stamps is at the Post Office awaiting identification.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis H. Baker, of Windsor avenue, have been notified of the safe arrival of their son, Sergeant Andrew A. Baker, overseas.

The "Thank Boxes" which are being made for distribution in Narberth will not be ready for at least another week.

Miss Ada Clayton spent the week end in Bethlehem as the guest of Mrs. George Rau, formerly Miss Mary Melchior.

Be sure to get your ticket early for the play, "The Oxford Affair." The proceeds will be used for Junior Red Cross work. Remember the date, December 28.

Home Bake and Practical Xmas Gifts Sale (to-day) Saturday, December 7th, all day, by the Woman's Community Club of Narberth, to be held in the vacant store, Y. M. C. A. block, Haverford avenue.

Members of the Sophomore Class will give a play for the Junior Red Cross on Saturday evening, December 28. The Red Cross needs your help as much as ever. Tickets can be bought from the Sophomores.

Although the cost of living has advanced 20 per cent. in this section during the past year, there were many things to be thankful for last Thursday.

In many respects Rex Beach's thrilling story, "Laughing Bill Hyde," is the finest achievement of the screen. The locations are taken in the West and are impressively authentic. Will Rogers, of the famous Ziegfeld's Follies, has the star role and adds a fresh face to the type of Western heroes. The men and women in "Laughing Bill Hyde" depart from the familiar and well tested trail and are guided by a keen dramatic sense that knows how to avoid every pitfall. This photoplay will be shown at the Palace Theatre on Wednesday.

INTERESTING LETTER FROM PRESIDENT NASH, OF THE NARBERTH CIVIC ASSOCIATION

To the Editor of Our Town:

There are several movements on foot to establish a fitting memorial in honor of the Narberth boys who have given their lives to defeat autoeracy. All of these movements should be brought under a central committee as soon as possible so as to enlist the services of every organization in the borough.

Careful thought should be bestowed on the place, the kind and the size of such a memorial, and if it comes down to a shaft or a drinking fountain or a tablet of some kind, the design should be awarded to the winner of a competition. The undersigned has no doubt that such a memorial could be made a competition in one of the advanced classes of the Department of Architecture at the University of Pennsylvania, and so produce something artistic as well as useful.

At the same time that suggestions for a memorial are being brought forward, it should not be forgotten that Narberth has already started a custom which seems to be more appreciated outside the borough than by her own citizens. I mean the tree planting for men in the service.

There has been prepared by the Civic Association a beautiful Charter which will be hung shortly in a public place. On this Charter appear the name of the man, the arm of the service he entered, the donor of the tree planted in his honor, and the time planted as well as location of the tree. If the boy has given his life for his country a gold star is placed before his name. An appropriate plate can be placed on the tree itself giving further details. Already in Narbrook Park and at the Methodist Church have trees been planted by individuals so that in time every boy will be remembered.

Such a custom is not only a beautiful one as far as honoring our boys, both those who have died and those who live, but it is a lasting custom which will go far to make our town a better place to live in.

Let us therefore take hold of this custom already started and see to it that not a boy is forgotten, and when they come back and read over the record on the Charter let none be saddened by seeing no mention made of his name.

Mention of Narberth's Tree Planting has been given in the press of Philadelphia, Washington, Baltimore and Richmond, and we have just received the following from a letter received from Private Alfred L. Cutts, Co. A, 314th Infantry overseas, and addressed to Mrs. Cutts:

"Narberth must be some place when the London Newspapers mention it. Was looking at a 'Daily Mail' the other day and up near the head of the paper was a piece about Narberth and Narbrook Park. It almost took my breath away. It went on to say that Narberth had started Tree Planting for the men who had left town to defend their country in France, and that there had been planted as a starter with a big celebration attended by hundreds of people, Narberth being the third place to adopt the idea (The first place on the Main Line). Do I have one, or is it for the fellows who are 'shot up'?"

It is fitting that we quote also from an editorial in one of the recent Philadelphia papers:

The Trees and the Hero Memorials.

While the communities of the country, large and small, are getting their bearings as to the character of the permanent memorials to the heroes of the world war there will be complete unanimity as to the wisdom of formal tree planting in parks, on highways, boulevards and parkways, in and about schools, public buildings and on college campuses in honor of those who gave their all for their homes and their country.

It has been clear, too, for some time that the country is decidedly impatient with the general average of the soldier memorials that sprang up everywhere after the Civil War. The least said about the most of them the better. So, as the better thought prevails and there is a demand everywhere for pause and judgment in selecting the kind of memorial that will meet the needs of the hour, the immediate desire to do something at once can well take the form of tree planting. For over a generation most of us have been familiar with the Arbor Day idea, and it will be very easy to direct this vital idea into new channels called for by the proposed soldiers' memorials, tree groups and memorial avenues.

Curiously enough, Joyce Kilmer, one of the militant poets who gave up their lives for their country, evidently had a premonitory sense that the tree was to figure more largely and emotionally in American life. And it would be fitting, therefore, if, wherever the tree memorials to our soldiers and sailors be set up, there should appear in imperishable bronze his lovely tribute that makes the trees, as it were, brothers to the heroes their greenery will commemorate. It runs as follows:

I think that I shall never see
A poem lovely as a tree.

A tree whose hungry mouth is prest
Against the earth's sweet flowing breast;

A tree that looks at God all day
And lifts her leafy arms to pray;

A tree that may in summer wear
A nest of robins in her hair;

Upon whose bosom snow has lain;
Who intimately lives with rain.

Poems are made by fools like me,
But only God can make a tree.

Let's all get together and see that every boy is listed on the Charter. One dollar sent to the Civic Association entitles the sender to list one name on the Charter. At the same time it constitutes a pledge to plant a tree for the boy, the location and date planted to appear on the Charter.

EDITORIAL

Fireside items are appreciated by our readers. Surely you can send us one or two short local happenings each week.

In last week's issue we published an article in which it was stated that the Home Guards of Narberth have started a movement which will insure a proper reception home-coming to our boys who return, and the erection in Narberth of a memorial in memory of the Narberth men who have given their lives in the great world war of 1914-1918.

Plans are being rapidly developed by members of the Home Guard, and your co-operation will be expected for this worthy and patriotic cause.

There should be no falling off in workers at the Red Cross workroom in the Y. M. C. A. Building, on account of the ending of the war. The workroom will be open every Monday night and all day Tuesday and Wednesday. Workers are needed as never before.

The desperate condition of the people of the war-ridden countries requires the Red Cross to supply them with clothing.

Our soldiers and nurses overseas will need all sorts of warm clothing and knitted articles.

Are you doing your share to help the Red Cross continue its great work?

SPECIAL MEETING.

Narberth, November 30th, 1918.

Special meeting of the Narberth Fire Company to be held Friday, December 6th, 1918, 8 P. M., for the purpose of considering the advisability of transferring the property of the Fire Company to the Borough of Narberth.

(Signed) EDWIN P. DOLD,
JOHN A. MILLER,
RAYMOND C. JONES,
FRED. E. DERBY,
Trustees.

BIG COMMITTEE TO PUT WAR STAMP SALE OVER.

In order to insure the sale of sufficient War Savings Stamps and Thrift Stamps in Narberth that we may say our community has "gone over the top" in this very necessary war measure, a Committee of Fifty representative women of the town is now being formed to boost the purchasing of these Stamps which, by the way, is a decidedly good investment—the rate of interest on the War Savings Stamps being 4.4%. During the remainder of this month about $10,000 must be purchased.

XMAS MAIL.

The co-operation of the public is desired in the handling of the Xmas mail. Observance of the following simple conditions will help:

Fully prepay postage on all parcels.
Address all parcels plainly.
Place name and address of sender on all matter.

Pack carefully and wrap securely, but do not seal them, as sealed parcels are subject to postage at letter rate.

Mail parcels early. They may be marked, "Do not open till Xmas."

Insure all valuable parcels.

"Merry Xmas," "Happy New Year," "Best Wishes" are permissible additions to fourth class mail.

In order to relieve some of the congestion at stamp window, patrons are requested to purchase stamps in quantity during the holiday season. It is much better to buy 10 stamps at one time than to come to the window ten times buying one stamp each time.

By observing these simple regulations the comfort and pleasure of the Xmas time may be greatly increased.

CLERK—POST OFFICE SERVICE.

The United States Civil Service Commission announces that on December 14, 1918, at Narberth, Pa., an examination for the position of clerk in Narberth Post Office will be held in the Y. M. C. A. at 9 A. M.

Applicants must have reached their eighteenth, but not their forty-fifth birthday on the date of the examination and must submit to the examiner on the day of the examination their photographs, taken within two years, securely pasted in the space provided on the admission cards sent them after their applications are filed.

From eligibles resulting from this examination it is expected that certification will be made to fill future and existing vacancies.

For application form 1371 and "Instructions to Applicants," address local Secretary at Narberth, Pa., in Post Office Building.

Application forms must be filed with the Secretary of the Third Civil Service District, 402 Post Office Building, Philadelphia, Pa., in time for the examination.

CUB'S WEEKLY LETTER

To the Editor of Our Town:

The blight of Bucks County justice came into the young life of one of our local school boys the other day. Although he was able to prove that on a certain day he was diligently pursuing his studies at the Narberth School, a farmer from the benighted county referred to, swore that the lad had shot a lot of the former's chickens in the vicinity of Doylestown on the same day. This is long distance shooting that would put the Kaiser's seventy-five-mile gun to shame. Those Big Berthas can push a missile a long distance, but are hardly capable of aiming at a chicken several miles away and hitting it in the eye. Ample proof was furnished that the boy hadn't left Narberth on that day, and furthermore, that he had never handled a gun in Bucks County, but he was fined thirty odd dollars just the same. Somebody had to pay for the chickens, and why not he?

Now that President Wilson has gone to Europe, perhaps he will bring back a few more English ideas for Ed. Haws to copy—something on the order of that left-handed door contraption.

Now if we Narberth folks had only pointed out to the President the agony we have to suffer through Ed's adoption of these imported ideas, he would have stayed at home like the humane man he is. Why worry about the atrocities in Europe when we have worse right here?

I am afraid Aloysius Scrub doesn't appreciate me and my good works in behalf of suffering Narberth. When he assails me with poetry, he is taking an unfair advantage because poetry, especially rotten poetry, is unanswerable.

CUB.

To the Editor of Our Town:

After two months' examination of the temperature records and a shorter time for those of rainfall, the Weather Bureau has decided to establish a permanent station in Narberth. To this end official forms and documents have been sent to me.

From now on the data will be published in the bulletins of the bureau. Narberth will be the only place on the Main Line to be represented in the bulletins.

CHAS. DECKER.

To the Editor of Our Town:

The war is not yet over, our men are still in France; we may have many reported dead when the last casualties are reported. However, when that time comes it would be well to name our unnamed streets so as to commemorate our Heroes and the Great War for Liberty. In Narbrook we have seven drive walks and they may be named after those who took part, or after battlefields in France where our boys played an important part. It is yet too early to do this, but not too soon to think it over and plan to this end. We may have fine suggestions before next May.

A. E. WOHLERT.

Play by Sophomore Class.

The Red Cross has a great deal of work to do, even though the armistice is signed. There is reconstruction work, and plenty of it. Of course, this will require money, so the members of the Sophomore Class will give a play for this cause, in the High School Auditorium, on Saturday evening, December 28th, 1918.

Get your tickets from any of the Sophomores.

Rev. Andrew S. Burke, Rector.

The services at All Saints' P. E. Church, Montgomery and Wynnewood avenues, for next Sunday are as follows:

8.00 A. M.—Holy Communion.

9.45 A. M.—Sunday School.

11.00 A. M.—Morning prayer and sermon.

Any Episcopalians who have not affiliated with any other Church are requested to deposit their letter at All Saints'.

The Rector will be very glad to call upon strangers or any new comers in this vicinity.

The winter work of the Sunday School is progressing nicely, and it is urged that parents see that their children attend regularly.

Try and follow the Brotherhood of Saint Andrew plan and make an effort each week to bring some person to Church or Sunday School. If we all would do this All Saints' would have to be enlarged to twice the present capacity.

The Church bus leaves Narberth and Wynnewood Stations at 10.40 on Sunday mornings.

7.45 P. M.—Evening worship.

8.00 P. M. Wednesday evening—Song and prayer service.

Church Notes.

The subject of the pastor's sermon Sunday morning will be, "Why Germany Failed." The Children's Object Sermon Sunday morning will be on the subject, "What We Keep in Our Hearts."

The leader of the B. Y. P. U. Sunday evening will be Miss Margaret Harlan. Topic, "Begin Now." The numbers and interest show an increase at each meeting, and new members are being added. Others, not members elsewhere, are invited to come.

At the hour of evening worship a bronze tablet will be dedicated in memory of Mr. Harry S. Hopper. Rev. A. J. Rowland, D. D., and Hon. Ernest L. Tustin will be the speakers. Mr. Stanley T. Reiff, Mus. Bac. A. A. G. O., will be at the organ.

The Sunday School rooms have been repainted and decorated, making the church building throughout very neat and attractive.

The attendance and interest shown at all our services last Sunday were most encouraging and inspiring. The Church is emerging from epidemic closing and war depressing effects in a very promising manner.

The public is cordially invited to join with us in any or all of these services. You will be made welcome.

SCHOOL NOTES

So many requests from various sources have come for School Notes that we shall again open this column.

The population of Narberth has been changing so rapidly during the past two years that there is a constant going and coming of pupils. The number of pupils generally enrolled at one time is—

A few years ago the faculty, and even the President of the School Board were proud to feel that they knew nearly every child and family reported in the school. This is, of course, no more possible. The same interest, however, is yet manifested, the aim of the school being to study so as to know the individual child. Patent medicine dispensing of instruction and penalties is disapproved of.

All parents are invited, yes, urgently requested, to come to the school whenever convenient. They should meet the teachers and frankly talk over the problem of the child.

The Thanksgiving exercises held on Wednesday morning were pronounced by "old comers" as the "best ever"! The exercises were snappy and brief but full of the true spirit of Thanksgiving mingled with the glee of little children enthusiastic over turkey and pumpkin pies.

Christmas exercises of the Narberth School will consist of two programs. On Monday evening, December 23rd, the High School will sing the old Christmas Carols. On Tuesday morning, the Elementary Department will entertain. The public is invited to both exercises. No admission will be charged.

A Junior Red Cross benefit will be given by the Sophomore Class on Saturday, December 28th. The play is entitled "The Oxford Affair."

A Naughty Doll.

Some time since a fond mother returned from an afternoon call and found her five-year-old daughter huddled up in a big armchair, crying bitterly.

"Why, Bessie," exclaimed the mother, taking the little one in her arms, "what in the world is the matter?"

"Somebody dreadful has happened," sobbed the youngster, nestling closer to her mother. "I—I—"

"That's all right darling," coaxingly responded the mother. "Tell me all about it."

"It was my dolly," was the tearful explanation of Bessie. "She got away from me and broke a dish in the pantry."

Explained.

A chaplain, on making his rounds in the base hospital of a large cantonment, stopped at the cot of a dandy and said:

"Sam how is it that you are in bed to-day? You were quite well when I spoke to you yesterday."

The dandy replied: "Well, pahson, ah don't was kicked by a mule."

"What in the name of goodness did he kick you for?"

"Ah guess ah don't got to salute."

Women's Community Club Entertains School Faculty

On Tuesday, November 26th, the Women's Community Club held its second meeting of the season in the newly appointed room in the Y. M. C. A. The school faculty were the guests on this occasion and every effort was made to make the afternoon an agreeable one.

Mr. Melchoir, principal of the schools, addressed the gathering and spoke in the highest commendable terms of the club's interest on behalf of the faculty and their appreciation of this afternoon's entertainment.

Mrs. Howard Hoffman and Mrs. G. Trainer rendered very pleasing instrumental and vocal selections. Mrs. Joseph Barclay was accompanist at the piano.

A group of poems by James Whitcomb Riley and others by Richard Harding Davis delighted those present and were exceptionally well given by Mrs. Imogene Chandler Gregory.

Mrs. Roy E. Clark acted as hostess, assisted by Mrs. Horton Williamson and Mrs. W. S. Horna.

SUFFRAGE NOTES

DR. SELF WILL SPEAK AT THE NEXT MEETING.

The December meeting of the Narberth Branch of the Woman Suffrage Party will be held in the Community Room of the Y. M. C. A. on Friday afternoon, December 13, at 3 o'clock. Dr. Self, of the Philadelphia Woman Suffrage Party, will address the meeting. Do not miss this opportunity to hear a good speaker. Every one interested in suffrage is invited to be present.

Report on Petitions.

At the next meeting of the Suffrage Party it is to be hoped that the members will be able to make a report on the work done on the petitions which were distributed at the November meeting. While these petitions are not to be completed until spring, it is a good plan to start them now and have part of the work done before bad weather sets in.

WOMEN'S COMMUNITY CLUB

Dr. Elise Whitlock Rose, of the Little House of Saint Pantaleon, will be heard in Narberth Tuesday, December 10th, at 3 P. M. in the Y. M. C. A., under the auspices of the Woman's Club of Narberth.

On the day that war was declared the founder of this little house was bound for Strasburg, and shortly heard the cries of suffering that echoed throughout the world—the cries of hurt children, of crazed women, of wounded on the battlefield, the victims of uncivilized warfare—and realized that she must immediately do all in her power to help in this great struggle.

Dr. Rose has been right in the midst of the suffering in France and can tell you interesting stories of the little hospitals that have sprung up all over France—of the wonderful opportunities to aid in the reclamation work of these splendid people at this time.

Each member is urged to keep this date open and to bring their friends and listen to one of the most interest-

RED CROSS

Work Room Open Monday Nights, Tuesday and Wednesday All Day.

There seems to be prevalent an impression that with the signing of the armistice the need for workers in the Red Cross has ceased, and many work rooms are in consequence almost deserted. The War Council of the American Red Cross in Washington, feeling that this is such a serious misapprehension of the facts, has just issued a strong plea to its members to "Carry On."

Peace is not yet here and our men and their families will need the Red Cross for a long time to come. But even when peace does come the Red Cross will have an enormous work to do. We must remember that the Red Cross was founded to aid in the prevention and alleviation of human suffering in times of peace as well as in war. The appalling suffering and misery and destitution of the inhabitants of the invaded districts pass description. We must clothe them, feed them, work for and with them. We do not know in its entirety what will be needed, but we do know that the urgent needs of the present are hospital supplies, reclamation of soldiers' clothes and refugee garments in untold amounts. To furnish all these things in time will require now and in the future the same persistent, unflinching sacrifice of time and inclination of our whole body of workers that has characterized them in the past. Workers may have to change the character of their work, notably that of surgical dressings, but every one of us is needed at once in these other departments.

Our men have aided most gloriously in bringing the victory within our grasp. But their work will be only half done if the reconstruction work fails, and fail it will without the Red Cross workers.

Over there our men are under orders to do what they are bid. We are under orders too, and must do what we are asked to do, not only what we like to do. Will you not therefore continue to work as in the past, and give your help in any department where it may be most needed?

Shall we fail our soldiers and sailors, our Government, our Red Cross, our Allies, humanity? There can be but one reply from every loyal Red Cross worker:

"The Red Cross shall not call on us in vain. The Red Cross shall not fail."

Crowded.

After receiving a pocket service book, a pocket Bible, a pocket album, a pocket French dictionary and a pocket edition of the poets, Private Peters hurriedly wrote: "Please send no more pocket editions until I get some pocket additions."—Life.

Angels Can Do No More.

The minister had been giving little talks to the children before the regular sermon. One of the little boys was moved to express his estimate of the kindly notice thus taken of them, so he wrote the following note:

"Dear Pastor: I prechate your preaching to us. I think you do the best you can. Tommy."

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsmen, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.

As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 3 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.
